IMPORTANT INFORMATION ABOUT OPENING A NEW ACCOUNT

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account. What this means for you: When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, address, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. We may also ask to see your driver's license or other identifying documents.

You warrant that the information you are furnishing above and on the reverse side is true, accurate, supplied voluntarily and not misleading. You authorize us, at our option: to check your credit and employment histories and credit references; to discuss this application and related information with your retailer/broker, if any, named above; to answer questions about your credit history with us; and to keep this application whether or not it is approved. We may obtain consumer credit reports periodically from one or more consumer reporting agencies (credit bureaus) in connection with your application and any update, renewal, refinancing, modification or extension of the credit. We or any affiliate of ours may obtain one or more consumer credit reports on you from time to time for any legitimate business purpose. If you ask, you will be told whether a credit report was requested, and if so, the name and address of any credit bureaus from which we or our affiliate obtained your credit report. We may also verify your employment, pay, assets and debts. You agree that anyone receiving a copy of this is authorized to provide us with such information. Should this application result in an account with us, we may report information about your account to the credit bureaus. Late payments, missed payments or other defaults on your account may be reflected in your credit report.
